

Anyone Home?

[lyrics: Libby Hammer/music: Shane Pooley]

Anyone there? I know you can hear me
I'm well aware that you keep your ear to the ground

Get on the line, 'coz you are invited
Quarter to nine, we're having a night on the town

Said, "I swear, I'll be there"
And now you've got me lookin' like a square
On the phone, on my own
Not once, not twice, because you never ever

Pick up the phone, are you in the shower?
Anyone home? You've got half an hour to come 'round

Anyone there? I know you can hear me
I'm well aware that you keep your ear to the ground

Get on the line, 'coz you are invited
Quarter to nine, we're having a night on the town

Said, "I swear, I'll be there"
And now you've got me lookin' like a square
On the phone, on my own
Not once, not twice, because you never ever

Pick up the phone, so what's the idea?
Anyone home? I guess I'll just see you around...
